BOUQUETS

Opening of Parliament

Dear Mr Clemson

On behalf of Bulahdelah Central School, I would like to thank you for inviting our students to your 30th Opening of Parliament. Our student leaders, Mr Gladys and myself were very impressed not only by the way the Ministers and their Opposition conducted themselves but also the way the members within the Parliament promoted and debated their motions and questions. This was evident in conversations I had with our students on their return to Bulahdelah.

Knowing many of the students, I was very proud of how well their confidence and communication within the parliamentary session was perceived and evidenced by the visiting guests. Personally, not having seen some of the students for 12 months, I was amazed by the growth in their personal confidence and deportment. On behalf of Bulahdelah Central School, I take this opportunity to congratulate Miss Kelly as Parliamentary Advisor, the Senators and yourself on the wonderful job yesterday - show-casing Tea Gardens Public School as a place of excellence, and we look forward to participating in many more parliaments to come.
